What is your connection/interest in the shooting industry:

Game Farmer Membership of the GFA is open to anyone in the United Kingdom who regularly rears and sells significant numbers of gamebirds and/or their eggs. Associate Membership is available to non-game farming individuals closely involved with the interests of the Association and supportive of its aims. Trade Membership is for businesses related to game farming and its interests. Associates and Trade Members cannot vote at meetings.

Do you rear gamebirds? Yes/No

Please supply a written reference from a GFA Game Farming Member, or another person of standing within the game shooting industry.

Your application will be considered at the next meeting of the GFA Executive Committee. (Your subscription will be returned in full in the unlikely event of the application being turned down).

Membership Fee: £300 per annum by Direct Debit

Please return the form to the Secretary, GFA, at the above address. Thank you.
